

TRANQUILITY CHURCH

From the desk of Pastor Lee

HAB 3:17-18

Although the fig tree shall not blossom, neither shall fruit be in the vines... yet I will rejoice in the Lord. I will joy in the God of my salvation.

WHEN THE STAKES ARE HIGH

Dear brothers and sisters of the Tranquility SDA Church,

Grace and peace to you from God our Father and Lord Jesus Christ! COVID-19 is changing the way we view and live our lives. It deeply impacts us as we aren't able to physically gather together for worship.

In the midst of this pandemic, many have sought comfort in things they have, or had the chance to buy such as canned / dry goods.

I've never seen people being so happy to buy toilet paper. These items may last them 2,3, or even 4 months. But what happens when they run out?

Our comfort and security is not in the things we have where moths and rust can corrupt. Our comfort and security only comes from the Lord. That is why we are able to say, "although the fig tree shall not blossom, neither shall fruit be in the vines... yet I will rejoice in the Lord. I will joy in the God of my salvation."

May we store up our treasures in heaven starting today to spend more time with God who can give us peace and joy even in the midst of the greatest storms.

Blessings,
Pastor Stephen Lee
